Project MALE: Session #1 Kick-Off

Theme: "Bring Your 'A' Game"

October 8, 2016

Emphasis on the Theme:

- Bring your best to all that you do.
- Strive for excellence in all that you do—always using your talents, gifts, and skills in an excellent manner.
- Consider: "A" stands for Actions that show:
 - The best in academics
 - Great character
 - Giving back to the community and serving others
 - Teamwork and that we love one another
 - Our best spiritual self
 - Our commitment to acquiring knowledge of our history and culture
 - Our commitment to living a healthy lifestyle
 - That we practice ethical and moral standards

Session 1: Orientation, Expectations, Goal Setting

Theme: "Bring Your 'A' Game"

October 8, 2016

Overall Program Objectives:

- Connected to the state of Texas critical skills competencies. Major focus is on problem solving skills:
 - Knowing how to gather information to solve a problem
 - Identifying when something is a problem
 - Being able to consider options before making a decision
 - Predicting outcomes
 - Ability to state ideas clearly based on reading material from facts given
 - For older students: understanding the concept of cause and effect

Session 1: Orientation, Expectations, Goal Setting

Theme: "Bring Your 'A' Game"

October 8, 2016

Session 1 Objectives:

- To engage students in fun ways in understanding the purpose of Project MALE (at their grade level) and what to expect from them relative to conduct in class, and the goals we have for them and their journey to becoming 'Men of Distinction').
- To allow students to get to better know instructors, mentors, and themselves
- To begin problem-solving activities that allow them to discuss goals that they have for themselves and for the future.
- Homework assignments may be given to reinforce material presented.
- Students and parents will have an opportunity to ask questions of guest, Jabari Johnson.
